

VERDUGO HILLS CEMETERY

ESTABLISHED 1922

Pioneer Cemetery Of Sunland-Tujunga

Hills of Peace?

The cemetery with a view to die for

Learn the history of our local cemetery and meet a few of its residents.

Saturday, October 25th, 2014

$20 per person

Tickets will become available on Sept. 20th.

5 Tour times: 9:00 AM, 10:45 AM, 12:30 PM,
2:15 PM, and 4:00 PM

3 ways to obtain your tickets:

1. On-line at the LLHS web-site;
2. In person at Bolton Hall Museum on Tuesday or Sunday from 1 to 4 PM (cash or check only—our docents will assist you); or,
3. Mail in your order with your check using the printable order form from our web-site.

Tickets must be purchased in advance.

No sales the day of event.

All tickets will be held at Bolton Hall Museum.
Guests will check-in as they arrive for their tour.

Each tour will begin at Bolton Hall Museum with a short presentation about the history of our cemetery. Buses will then spirit our guests up to the cemetery. They will see and hear costumed re-enactments depicting cemetery residents' lives and explore the area. All guests must ride the buses—no cars allowed.

There is much walking over hilly, rugged and uneven terrain. Guests should wear sturdy walking shoes. This tour is not recommended for children under 12 years of age.

Each tour, including travel time, is approximately two hours.

All proceeds will be used for the care and maintenance of Bolton Hall Museum and Verdugo Hills Cemetery.
